

Gregory Patton

Senior Recruiter at Hunt Patton & Brazeal

If you are looking for a loyal Oil & Gas Sales candidate that can fight for your company tooth and nail during this economy, I highly recommend interviewing my friend Jan Horn who was recently laid off from Baker Hughes. Jan is a fighter and a fast learner. He can quickly adapt to new technologies, services and equipment. He will beat the streets and knock doors down, large or small. You can contact Jan directly. Thank you.
